

Alessandro Treves - Professional and academic career

74-79 Liceo Classico Michelangiolo, Florence

79-85 BA student at Yale College, then at the Dip di Fisica, Univ of Florence, then at the Dip di Fisica, Univ La Sapienza of Rome. MSc Thesis on the non-linear Sigma model, adv Guido Martinelli

85-86, 87-89 PhD student at the Dept of Physics, Hebrew Univ Jerusalem. PhD Thesis on the onset of order in auto-associative networks, superv Daniel J Amit

87-88 participant in the interdisciplinary program in Physics & Neuroscience at the Inst. for Advanced Studies of the Hebrew University

89-92 post-doc at the Dept of Experimental Psychology, University of Oxford, in the neurophysiology laboratory of Edmund T Rolls

92-95 research fellow at the Biophysics Sector of SISSA, Trieste

95-00 research fellow at the Cognitive Neuroscience Sector of SISSA

00-06 associate professor with the Cognitive Neuroscience Sector

03- long-term visiting professor with the Centre for the Biology of Memory (since 2013 with the Centre for Neural Computation), Norwegian University for Science and Technology, Trondheim

06- full professor with the Cognitive Neuroscience Sector, from 2012 with the Area of Neuroscience

11-13 on leave to serve as Counsellor for Scientific Affairs at the Embassy of Italy, Tel Aviv

General administrative and organisational experience

99-02 Director of the EU Advanced Course in Computational Neuroscience, Trieste and Obidos

00-01, 10-11 Coordinator of the Cognitive Neuroscience Sector, SISSA

02-06, 14-18 Council member, Trieste Jewish Community, responsible for its primary school the first term, for its old-age home the second

03-09 on 3 review panels of the German BMBF "Understanding Thought" initiative for the allocation of overall 93 MEuro to centers and projects in computational and cognitive neuroscience in Germany

05-07 NENS committee member (FENS Network of European Neuroscience Schools)

2007 organizer of the 500-pax European Brain and Behavior Society meeting, in Trieste

06-10 member of the HFSP review committee in Strasbourg

11-13 manage Italian-Israeli science & technology programs, Embassy of Italy, Tel Aviv

11 FENS Program Committee, Barcelona

13-15 Director of the Master in Complex Actions (an introduction to hi-tech entrepreneurship), SISSA

16-18 Coordinator of the Area of Neuroscience, SISSA